Role description: Musical Volunteer

Role title:	Musical Volunteer
Project description:	To play music at the museum to enhance the visitor experience
Project manager:	Ruaidhri O'Mahony
Project supervisor (if different):	Duty Keyholder for the day
Where:	Russell-Cotes Art Gallery & Museum
When:	Any day Tuesday to Sunday, any time from 10.00am to 5.00pm, and with the opportunity of some evenings and special events
Commitment:	No minimum time commitment. Some people like to come in once a week and others once a month, some play for an afternoon and others all day - the role is flexible to suit you.
Duration:	Ongoing
Requirements: (skills etc)	Enthusiasm for bringing the historic house and museum to life for visitors and evening hirers. Skills: We need a performance standard musician with a classical repertoire to include pieces of music from the Victorian/Edwardian era but not exclusively. Tasks: To play on a drop-in basis in the museum and at evening events. Be willing to play in Victorian costume on occasion. Sensitivity to the response of visitors and to other activities in the house. Please be aware that this is not a formal performance, but background music designed to create a wonderful atmosphere for visitors.
What's in it for you:	Delight and satisfaction of making a hugely positive impact on the visitor enjoyment. Of gaining live performance experience in a friendly and welcoming environment.

	Be part of our wonderful volunteer team – regular opportunities to meet new people.
Why we want you:	We are seeking to build on our current success with our small team of musical volunteers who play in the historic house for the enjoyment of our visitors. We are seeking to extend our musical offer to string and wind instruments although pianists are welcome. We need more volunteers who like to play in Victorian costume.
Training:	Fire Induction, Health and Safety Induction, Tour of the house
