

Where in the World?

1. Where was Annie born?

2. Before he married, in which country did Merton teach for a short time?

3. Which two countries are symbolised on the wall paper in the Study?

4. Where did Annie burn her leg on a lava field?

5. Where did Annie and Merton visit a gold mine and have their photograph taken with Merton dressed up as a gold miner?

6. The decoration in the Moorish Alcove was based on which Spanish Palace?

7. Apart from England and Scotland, which countries are represented in the stained glass windows in the Dining Room?

8. In the collection there are a pair of hotel slippers that Annie brought back from her travels, which country are they from?

9. In his autobiography Merton describes a train journey where the heat was so intense they had to resort to soaking their handkerchiefs in eau de Cologne and putting them on their heads. Which country were they in?

10. The Main Hall ceiling is decorated with mon, which country do they originate from?

11. Where is the canoe from?

12. Where is this beautiful quivering hair ornament from?

13. From which Islands do we believe this Melanesian mask is from?

14. Where is this tea pot from?

15. In which country is 'Good News, Bad News' set?

16. Who are these sleeping children and where is the viewer meant to envisage them?

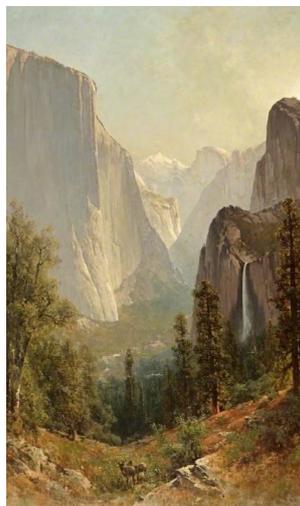

17. Annie and Merton took cuttings from a weeping willow overhanging Napoleon's grave. Where were they?

20. This crocodile headed lyre is from which continent?

18. Which American National Park is this?

19. Which town is shown in this painting from 1861?

The answers will be announced on Wednesday along with Round Eight of the Quiz.